

Gettin' ready for the AUSTRALIAN IDOL finals

So you've got a big night coming up? Well they don't get any bigger than the Australian Idol finals. Check out these suggestions on how the finalists can use Garnier products to help them shine on their big night. Then you can use them when you want to strut your stuff in the spotlight!

A husky voice is cool but dry skin isn't, so before big performances Shannon could use the Garnier Fresh range to freshen and hydrate his skin. Garnier Fresh Gel Wash followed by Garnier Fresh Moisturising Fluid will do the trick perfectly. Finally, for complete confidence, he could top it off with Garnier Fructis Anti-Dandruff shampoo.

Tone-perfect, Cosima could make her skin the same using Garnier Fresh Toning Water. Then afterwards, she should nourish it with Garnier Fresh Moisturising Cream. Finally, we think glow is the go for Cosima, so she could use the Garnier Ambre Solaire No-Streaks Bronzer for a radiant tan and match it up top with Garnier Nutrisse Haircolour in Chestnut, for a rich, long-lasting colour.

He's got a voice from heaven and to get skin to match, Guy could first use the Garnier Pure Foaming Wash to gently exfoliate and purify his skin. Then he should follow up with Garnier Pure Sebum Control Moisturiser to moisturise whilst controlling oiliness. Up top, we suggest the Garnier Fructis Fortifying Shampoo for Dry/Damaged hair to make sure his 'fro is ready to go!
